

PRINCETON MODEL UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS COUNCIL
The American Whig-Cliosophic Society

Dear Faculty Advisors,

It is with great pleasure and excitement that we welcome you to the 2026 Princeton Model United Nations Conference (PMUNC), which will be held in person from November 19th-22nd, 2026.

PMUNC is run by the Princeton International Relations Council, a subsidiary organization of the American Whig-Cliosophic Society—the oldest collegiate debating union in the United States. Since its inception, our conference has striven to deliver a realistic and comprehensive simulation of the United Nations and related committees. The Secretariat team has been working diligently to ensure that all delegates will be given the opportunity to develop broader perspectives, voice their opinions on contentious issues, and cooperate with others to produce impactful resolutions. We expect that the topics covered in committee will be challenging; as such, our conference staffers undergo a rigorous training process so that they may provide helpful guidance and assistance when needed. After an eventful weekend full of diplomacy, debate, and delight, delegates leave our conference with the potential to become future leaders of our society.

We are thrilled to return for our 5th year in-person conference in 2026. This year, our conference will be held at the Dolce Hotel by Wyndham Parsippany in Parsippany-Troy, NJ.

Our conference will continue to uphold our fundamental values: the unrivaled, immersive educational experience we seek to deliver to each of our delegates. The conference staff is entirely composed of undergraduate students at Princeton University. While they represent a wide variety of academic interests, from economics to electrical engineering, they are united in their passion for Model UN and global affairs. We hold our staff to the highest professional standards, and this commitment to excellence will continue to define the PMUNC experience. Ultimately, we will always strive to create an environment conducive to learning, debating, cooperating, and, most importantly, having fun.

We also want to maintain a safe environment for all of our delegates. While we understand that Model UN can rile up emotions, and delegates want to generate impact in their committees, we would like to remind delegates that PMUNC does not tolerate harassment, discrimination, or violence of any kind. Additionally, we caution delegates against the use of war crimes or violations of human rights, even while in character. For a more detailed breakdown of actions not allowed, please refer to our DEI statement on our website. For any questions, feel free to contact our Secretariat at pmunccharge@gmail.com

On behalf of the entire PMUNC Secretariat, we are thrilled to be inviting you to join us at PMUNC 2026. Please check our website on a regular basis. As we move forward with preparations, it will be updated with important information regarding registration, logistics, and committee details. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact our Chargé d'Affaires at pmunccharge@gmail.com

We look forward to welcoming you this November!

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ)

REGISTRATION

1. What are the costs for PMUNC 2026?

For PMUNC 2026, delegate fees will be $120 per student during Early Registration, $125 per student during Regular Registration, and $130 per student during Late Registration (if a school does not make the October 28 deadline). This includes all conference fees and transportation to and from Princeton University if the delegation is attending the Friday morning campus visit. The delegation fee is $65 per school. Transportation to and from the conference is the responsibility of each delegation. Other costs for the Conference, including hotel rooms and meals, will be sent to you shortly.

2. How can we register?

Registration for PMUNC 2026 occurs on our website (<https://www.princetonirc.com/pmunc>). Please remember, however, that for committee/country assignments, you will only be considered fully registered after we have received your full payment. Registration is currently open.

3. How should payments be addressed?

We are offering two payment methods for this year's conference.

1. All PMUNC check payments should be issued to the "The Trustees of Princeton University" and write "PMUNC 15112" in the memo line (NOT PMUNC!) and mailed to: Carlos Ortiz, 313 Morrison Hall, Princeton University, Princeton, NJ 08544. Please make sure to write your school's name in the memo line.
2. Payment will be handled through our website's online payment system, through which delegations can pay by using a credit card. The link to the conference payment system will be sent to you via email from the Chargé d'Affaires.

4. Do I need a faculty advisor to register? Must I be affiliated with a school or team?

You do not need to be affiliated with a school or team to register. Even if your school is unable to attend the conference this year, you are still free to register for PMUNC independently. In these cases, the delegate's parent or guardian typically serves as their "faculty advisor."

5. If I have any questions, to whom should I address them?

Please direct all PMUNC 2026-related questions to our Chargés d'Affaires, Fiona Peterson and Nastasia Philip at pmunccharge@gmail.com.

TRAVEL AND LODGING

1. Where will the Conference be held?

The Conference will be held at the Dolce Hotel by Wyndham Parsippany.

2. Am I required to stay at the Dolce?

We strongly encourage all schools to stay at the Dolce Hotel by Wyndham Parsippany, but you are not required to stay at the Dolce. However, we have negotiated special rates with them, and most hotels in the area will offer much higher rates. Moreover, all delegates participating in a number of our Crisis & Experimental Committees are highly recommended to stay at the Dolce due to the intensive immersive experience that they entail. Delegates who choose to commute to the conference will be responsible for providing their own transportation following any unscheduled crisis simulations.

3. How do we make room reservations?

We will send updated information on hotel reservations soon.

4. Are my hotel arrangements set after I reserve the rooms?

No. You will be required to submit a room list to the Dolce Hotel. Without this, your registration at the hotel cannot be completed. You can contact our hotel contact - Maguy Charbel at maguy.charbel@dolceparsippanyhotel.com or 973-560-5165 for hotel reservations. Please note that registering for the conference does not confirm your spot at the hotel, and is separate from this process.

5. How much are the hotel fees for PMUNC 2026?

As we have special rates, please contact Maguy Charbel at maguy.charbel@dolceparsippanyhotel.com or 973-560-5165 for specific hotel room prices and reservations.

6. How will we get to and from the hotel to the University?

Transportation to and from the hotel to Princeton University, for Friday morning campus visits, is included in the conference fees. Buses will drive to and from the hotel to the University to accommodate all transportation needs. A form will be sent out before the conference to collect interest. Sign-ups will be first-come, first-served until Princeton tour guide capacity is reached.

7. Where will we eat during the conference?

For PMUNC 2026, there will be several options for breakfast, lunch, and dinner:

- a) The hotel has put together a meal plan for $149 (plus service charge and tax), which allows access to a Grab and Go section. Alternatively, for $159, two lunches (on Friday and Saturday) and three dinners (on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday). Vegetarian options will be available. We strongly encourage you to purchase this plan and enjoy the diverse options that the Dolce chefs provide! For more detailed information, visit the Meals section under the Information tab on our website. All payments will be made through the hotel, not Princeton.
- b) Breakfast Delegations can elect to pay for the aforementioned 5-meal plan plus continental breakfast on either one or three days. The one-day breakfast-included plan costs $179 (plus service charge and tax) and the three-day breakfast-included plan costs $219 (plus service charge and tax). The three-day breakfast includes continental breakfast on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. Additionally, the hotel will be working to provide a greater range of à la carte items in the hotel lobby.
- c) Several nearby restaurants offer delivery services. If you choose this option, we strongly encourage you to order your food before the committee session ends, as it may not arrive in time if ordered afterwards.

8. How much money should students bring to the Conference, for food and miscellaneous expenses?

If the students have purchased the hotel's meal plan for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, they will only need money for merchandise and snacks. Students who do not purchase the hotel's meal plan should estimate the cost of ordering food for the entire Conference. In addition, PMUNC t-shirts and other merchandise will be on sale at the conference, and students will be able to buy Princeton gear from the University store during the campus visit on Friday. They can check their website <http://www.pustore.com> for selection and prices.
